

NASA Technology Transfer Assistance

PENNTAP is under contract as an affiliate of the NASA Mid-Atlantic Regional Technology Transfer Center, <http://www.teccenter.org>. As an affiliate PENNTAP can help identify NASA-sponsored research, technology, technical expertise and R&D capabilities that match the needs and interests of your business.

PENNTAP helps Pennsylvania companies improve their competitiveness by providing a limited amount of free technology assistance and information, on a confidential basis, to help resolve specific technical questions or needs.

PENNTAP can help you with questions regarding:

- Searches of available NASA technologies.
- Technical support packets including patents and technical white papers.

Typical Questions

- What technologies are available through NASA which might benefit my company?
- Can you explain appropriate technologies in detail or provide a direct contact for intricate discussion within NASA?
- Would you provide creative suggestions and ideas relative to how NASA technology might fit into my company?
- Can I use NASA technical resources or facilities to develop products I would patent and market with exclusive rights?
- Would you help me navigate through the red tape associated with dealing with the government?
- Is NASA interested in developing partnerships with small companies?

What You Can Expect

PENNTAP can help you with questions regarding a NASA technology match, establishing technology agreements with NASA, patenting products and intellectual property, working with NASA scientists to commercialize new products and measuring program success. NASA is deeply committed to spreading the unique knowledge that flows from its aeronautics and space research to businesses throughout the private sector.

PENNTAP assistance will be prompt. We will listen to you to make sure we understand your specific question or need. We will then provide assistance through our own expertise and/or looking up information. If it is a question beyond the expertise or scope, we will refer you to other resources. After we provide the assistance, we will send you a brief evaluation survey to determine your satisfaction and the economic impact of our assistance.

Eligibility Criteria

Any Pennsylvania business is eligible for PENNTAP assistance.
